One by one, everyone participated in introducing themselves and shared details to their goals, time availability, job travel, and why they wanted to be part of the group.

Guests: Bobbi Lane, Anita Morris, and Shelly

- Bobbi Lane: Referee Assignor for SCORE, District Three Secretary, District 3 Protest Board Member,
- Anita Morris: Referee, SKCSRA Speaker Scheduler
- Shelley Sooman Referee Coordinator for Washington State Women's Soccer

Contracts:

David and Betty explained that SKCRA has three contracts available and depending upon the client and their past history with SKCRA will depend upon which one is used.

It was suggested that we have a Liaison for each of our Clients.

Betty and Bob will continue to work with all others.

PSSL - John will be the Liaison until another can be found.

Bylaws and Constitution:

Kathy Chromy was appointed to become the protector of the Bylaws and Constitution. Moving forward the Board will review the Bylaws and will work to understand the Bylaws and if deemed necessary move forward to make any changes.

Meetings:

How, Many Where, Who? It was suggested that we try and have our meetings at Starfire. Betty is looking into cost. The WIAA Building will be reserved for a back up at this time.

Calendar/Communication Process:

Kathy Chromy will gain rights to SKCSRA for posting events to the calendar while being able to create announcements to the membership.

Super Saturday 2006 -2/25/06

George Eastman requested that we help support attendance to Super Saturday. Announcement will be created and posted on the web site.

Topics discussed in general were Recruiting and Developing Referees, Building relationships with our customers and the referee community within SKCSRA, Local Youth Referee Associations and State Referee Committee.

SKCSRA Finances

David Cass will provide a Monthly Finance Statement for each monthly SKCSRA meeting.

Checking account signatures will remain with the same people in tact. There is no immediate need to make any changes.

Meeting Attendance:

All attendance will be kept and recorded by Kathy Chromy.

Meeting Minutes
